Weekly BULLETIN

31st January 2022

The Governor of the Bank of Uganda Prof. Emmanuel Tumusime-Mutebile died on Sunday 23rd January 2022, in Nairobi Hospital.

He was admitted to Nairobi Hospital after he collapsed due to complications related to diabetes. He had been in and out of hospital in recent years mainly in Uganda and India, still on diabetic-related sicknesses, which led to failing kidneys and later caused his death at the age of 72 years.

ACTS OF COURTESY BY UPPER SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Our news reporter brought us burning news with evidence on how the upper school children show love, and care to those of lower classes. When it is time for lunch the young ones sit at the tables and wait to be served by their elders of the upper school.

We thought that this was done for only one day only to realize that they do the same even on the days when chicken and meat are served. We commend them for the spirit of love and care and encourage them to continue doing the same.

COMPUTER LESSONS START AT THE DAY SCHOOL

It was such an amazing moment when some classes at the Day School had their first lessons of computer studies. Some children especially the new comers were asking themselves where they could study computer from because they hadn't seen them anywhere in the Day School.

However, this question was answered to some that got a chance to see them. And to all those that have the same question, this week you will also get answered because all classes will have the lessons.

FIRE DRILLS EXCITE CHILDREN

On Friday, the pupils of the Day School were taken through the drills on how to fight fire in case it gutted a place.

The exercise was done by a senior Fire master who has all techniques of fighting fire.

After the lessons, teachers and children were given a chance to try out what they had learnt and it was such an amazing experience.

The try outs were climaxed by the Principal himself who excited all children as he was trying out.

MOST PUNCTUAL CHILDREN

As a school, we take the opportunity to thank all those children who always arrive on time. We noticed that there are some children who arrive at school as early as 6:30am .We are really proud of you. We shall compile a list of the most punctual children of the week and display them in the Bulletin.
